POLICE COURT.
GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.
TUESDAY August 3.
THE DOCKET CONTINUED.—The regular docket
this court, for the month of August, was laid over or continued to the first Monday in September.

CONCEALED WEAPONS—DRUNKENNESS.—William Huston, a young man, was presented for drunkenness and carrying a concealed weapon—a knife. He says he is a boy man, and used the knife to cut lines in splicing wire. He was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court. He had the swear on him, and was required in $300 for his good behavior, and was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court. He was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court. He was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court.

A LITTLE DISORDERLY.—John Ryder, a little fellow, was presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but a hard head worker when sober, was released in a drunken way, and taken up. He was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court.

A WILD WOMAN.—Heziah Bolton, rather an old lady, who has an unfortunate, or unlucky, habit of drinking, was presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and was taken up, and locked up. She had created a disturbance on the street—raising a mob—and was released on $200 bond, and ordered to appear in court.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.—Jas. Boyle, a smooth fellow, was presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and invading the house of a neighbor. They couldn't make out much of accusations against him, and he was discharged.

INVADED A HOUSE.—John Ryder, a little fellow, was presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and invading the house of a neighbor. They couldn't make out much of accusations against him, and he was discharged.

Newport Election.—The result of the election of yesterday in Newport, Ky., was the election of the entire Democratic ticket, and the defeat of the Republican nominees. Mr. Hawkins, who was an old line Whig vote for Col. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Governor, was elected Governor. Mr. Hawkins. Know Nothing order, was elected Mayor. He was nominated by a meeting independent of party. Some misunderstanding in relation to Sine with the Democratic ticket, and the Democratic vote drew from him and the Republican ticket. On the State ticket, Revell, Democratic best opponent of the Republican ticket, was defeated in 1896. Buchanan, was defeated for Governor by Revell, nineteen years. In the county (Can. Revell, nineteen years) Revell will have five hundred majority. Mr. McKim, Republican, had majority in the county was three hundred and fifty-one. Our friends have done much better in Newport than in any other place. As a result, they would be able to do.—Cin. Enq.

The charge was preferred by Sheriff Tracy, former cashier of the "Cherokee National Bank" and a resident of Georgia, for a crime for which Mr. Woodworth was arrested and alleged to have been committed by him as president of the bank. The case was heard by Judge Stephen Bronson, jr., in the Recorder's court of Chicago, at the last January and February terms. The evidence was taken by the court, and involved certain transactions connected with the late "Merchants and Mechanics' Bank" of Chicago, which was organized in 1867, and of which Bronson was twice tried last winter on the charge of the larceny of $2,000 of the Cherokee Bank. The evidence was taken by the court, and which bank Bronson was cashier. On both trials the jury disagreed, and subsequently, Mr. Harvey, who was the attorney for the State, withdrew entering a not pro, and Mr. Bronson was discharged.

never came across him until Saturday last, when he at once proceeded to arrest him. There was no objection made by him, and he was taken to the police office in court, where he had never seen Walker pass any counterfeit money, nor had he ever heard of his passing any counterfeit money. He was taken to the police office, where he was arraigned upon the most flimsy pretence, and he claimed that he ought to be at once released, as he had taken the case under arrest. — Eng. Eveg.

SHORT CUT TO FRAZER RIVER.—The distance from St. Paul to the gold mines on Frazer river is as follows:

St. Paul to Pembina	450 miles
Pembina to Carlton House	600 "
Carlton House to Edmonton	900 "
Edmonton to the mouth of the Peace (branch of Frazer river)	300 "

Total..... 1650 miles

It is estimated that, in view of the facilities afforded by the face of that country, and a continuous line of pack trails, the distance of 1650 miles, that this journey can be accomplished in several days, at an expense to a company of ten persons of $1500 or less.

DEATH OF DR. D. D. OWEN.—The country has been grievous to read the following painful intelligence from the Mt. Vernon (Ind.) Advocate, which was received from the late Dr. Owen, who died last night, after a long illness, of a disease which he had contracted while in the army.

pressed may be unfounded:

We regret extremely to learn that the health of this gentleman is so seriously impaired, and that his eminently brilliant and vigorous career is drawing near its close. His decline of health is undoubtedly owing to over application of his extraordinary powers. Although distinguished for untiring studiousness and industry, the great extent and consequences of his public duties have been such that he has necessarily involved an amount of labor too severe for a physical constitution never robust, and whose nature is so unfortunately neglected have been confirmed and deepened.

STUDENTS SUSPENDED FROM WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—We learn from the Washington (Pa.) Examiner that six students of the Washington College have been suspended on Monday last. Their names are—Geo. B. Caldwell, of Wheeling; Geo. W. Reed, of Washington; H. M. Smith, of Washington; J. M. Smith, of Washington county; James Laferly, of Pittsburgh; and Robert Woods, of Pittsburgh. The charges against them are—drunkenness, immorality, and connection with a secret society entitled the D. D. D. T. They were brought before the faculty and sentenced to be expelled from the college. The significance of the D. D. D., telling the faculty that the letters were the initials of three Latin words, which were bound not to divulge, since the suspension.

RE-APPEARANCE OF THE PLAUGH.—The plague after an intermission of twenty years, has reappeared in the district of the south-east of England. The last account was continuing male ravages as an epidemic. There was a run that it had already been conquered. The most recent quarantaine regulations had been resorted to.

TRAMPLED TO DEATH BY A STALLION.—A young man of twenty years, named George Finnin, employed by James Faraday, a farmer who resides at the village of Broom's Barn, near Bury, on Friday last by a vicious stallion in the barn of his employer. The unfortunate young man entered the barn to feed the horses, and was trampled by the vicious animal, and mortally wounded.

LOST LADY OF PETERBOROUGH.—A young girl of her daughter several years ago, to a tennant, who adopted her as his own child. The girl, the girl having grown up a beautiful girl, and was married to a young man, a child, and the court, at Norfolk, in a trial on the subject, decided that she should take her own name, and leave her mother sobbing in the street.

MISS MRS. CUNNINGHAM—The name of the girl who is married to Mr. Eckel, says that she has not visited her house since the trial. Dr. C.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THAT BEAR STORY.

"I was determined to find out what it was that plasmash with my corn every night. The field was close to the woods, so I climbed a tree overlooking that part of the corn, and about midnight I heard a rustling among the corn, and on closer examination I found it to be the thunderin' big Bear. Curiosity tempted me to watch and see what the old varmint would do. Well, sir, he kept on smashing down and munching 'til I thought he was going to eat the whole lot. I was so scared I was confounded old skin would burst; he then gathered up all the ears of the biggest ears and walked off into the woods; I got down and followed him for two miles."

the woods, when, what do you think I found? Well, the cursed old brute had built a pen and four of my best hogs in it, fattening them on his hook. Now, sir, if you don't believe it, you can down to WEBSTER'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, Main street, and ask him, he knows the man that shot the story." p22

BOWLING GREEN, N. O., Bowling Green, Tenn.

The river has the appearance of rising a little last evening, with three feet six inches water in the canal by the mark, which is about 45 feet water for steamboats. The weather was warm and cloudy, with a shower early in the morning, and another in the evening.

On Sunday night, Monday morning, there were heavy rains in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, which have caused a rise in the water. At Pittsburgh, yesterday, at noon, there was four feet water in the canal, which would be sufficient to let out the propeller fleet which was aground on hard bottom.

At Cincinnati, the storm was very violent, and the rain fell in torrents for three hours. The rain caused a rise in the water, and the river was running at a rapid rate. The water was so high, that it was necessary to stop the boats at Cincinnati, and to wait until the water should subside.

The John Bell arrived from St. Louis yesterday, coming right without delay, and will be, of course, able to leave for Cincinnati, and to go out a freight, but by reports of flood from above, and Little Miami, we learn that outside of a circuit of 60 miles, there were only showers. The river had risen two feet, but it was falling again at that point yesterday, and unless we have more rain, it cannot make much of a rise here.

The John Bell, from St. Louis, reports several boats aground in the Lower Ohio, but with five feet water on Scuffletown bar, and about six feet at Flat Island.

The Quaker City was hard aground at Yellow Banks, with but little prospect of getting her off. The H. Fairchild, from St. Louis, reports that she had grounded on Holt's bar, when she was compelled to lighten by taking off her deck load of mules.

Thanks to the officers of the Chancellor for late New Orleans papers, and a river memorandum. She was full of passengers, and did much business.

Business at New Orleans at the latest date, was excessively dull, and by private advices we learn that the yellow fever has increased. The H. D. New Orleans, which left New Orleans Monday evening for this port, with rather a slim trip. There was but little freight shipping, and but few passengers. Travelers to the New-Com on arrival, lay up for repairs.

The Chancellor reports the E. H. Fairchild lying above Holt's bar, and the return aground at Flat Island.

For New Orleans—The Chancellor, Captain Stewart, having been detained, takes her departure to New Orleans this evening. She is of an unusual light draught, and will be able to pass the Quaker City, and to make landings on the Ohio river.

SALE OF THE REPUBLIC—The Republic was sold at St. Louis, Saturday, by trustee sale, to Capt. Sam Montgomery, for $8,000. To make sale complete, the Republic was to buy out other claims of $84,000.

Tus John Raine—This splendid steamer arrived from New Orleans, with a full cargo of passengers, scarce six days out. She had a fine trip, and attended to a good deal of business.

To the attention of the John Raine, we are indebted for New Orleans papers of last Thursday, only five days old.

She reports the Fairchild at Cleveland, and two steamers at New Orleans, and that the river is running at a rapid rate.

MAIL PACK FOR MEMPHIS—The Southern is the regular mail boat to Cairo and Memphis to day. She starts at 10 o'clock, from Portland, and makes thirty-two mail landings on the Ohio river.
